

IAEI MICHIGAN CHAPTER - ANNUAL MEETING
GUESTS' PROGRAM
December 5-6, 2013 | Location: Sheraton Hotel Lobby

Itinerary

Thursday, December 5th, 2013

- ◆ 8:00 Breakfast in the Hotel Restaurant
- ◆ 9:00 Gather in Hotel Lobby
- ◆ 9:15 Board the Van
- ◆ 10:00 Matthaei Botanical Gardens Conservatory
Docent guided tour of the University of Michigan Matthaei Botanical Gardens Conservatory. The Conservatory displays plants from three major life and climate zones - or "biomes" - around the world. It is believed to be the largest free-span (no supporting columns) Conservatory of its structural style and represents a technological limit of architectural materials and climate controls in the era before computer models.
- ◆ 11:30 Board the Van
- ◆ 11:45 Kerrytown Market and Shops
The Kerrytown Market & Shops, located in the heart of the historic Kerrytown District of Ann Arbor, is an extraordinary neighborhood with distinctive, one-of-a-kind stores and the charm of an earlier time. Kerrytown Market & Shops stands out as the most unique collection of shops in the area.
- ◆ 12:00 Lunch at Argiero's Italian Restaruant
Located in Kerrytown, Argiero's is the only Italian Restaruant, in Ann Arbor, currently run by an Italian family. The restaurant has been an Ann Arbor favorite for many years.
- ◆ 1:30 Board the Van
- ◆ 1:45 Crazy Wisdom Bookstore and Tea Room
Linda Diane Feldt, Holistic Health Practitioner, will give a presentation on herbal medicine, local herbs that are available, and why and how someone could forage for food and medicine, a demonstration is included.
- ◆ 3:30 Board the Van
- ◆ 3:45 Return to the Hotel

Friday, December 6th, 2013

- ◆ 8:00 Breakfast in the Hotel Restaurant
- ◆ 9:00 BINGO - Location to be Determined