What Would Make the Code Update Class Better?

Allow Time for Q & A interaction	Class slightly shorter on second . Travel	This was Great
Nothing	More interaction - Questions	Leave as is
Nothing, More time to discuss, hard with limited time	Room participation equally good	More interaction from the audience - Questions
Nothing, More time to discuss, hard with limited time		This was Great
Last year several of the programs were terrible at the March meeting. I stated that the June meeting would be like eating chalk. I was wrong, The June meeting complemented the March Meeting. Most excellent speakers. I loved the interaction.

All speakers knew their subjects well.	Do not do back to back code update classes.	Dual instructors keep it interesting, Great Job.
Enjoy view point or input from others	Great Experience - Very Glad I attended.	Great job by all of the speakers
Dual speakers works well	Great Job	Great job on Both Classes
I appreciate having the chief electrical inspector participate in our meetings.	We don't need a full breakfast, Summer meeting should be at a resort.	People talking during classes. Door hardware too loud
New sound system is great!!	Great Job as always	Great Speakers
I don't think the transfer of people was done fair	Would like to have a meeting at the Grand Traverse Hotel
My employer does not pay for my trip here. It is important for me to do the best job possible. The meeting has great value to me.		Please give instructions to keep side discussions short and quiet. Also restate it after every break.
When 2 code update classes are offered I feel like a lot of people attend the 2nd class for credits towards Act 407, not for their license. Possibly the 2 and class could offer a early release on the second day. They would receive credits towards 407, but not for license.
The closing of the hotel rooms could be understood, but the way it was dealt with was poor. The GT Resort did not freshen rooms, which happened at the Park Place. The shuttle system caused logistic nightmares for the members who had guests who were attending the guest program. Choosing who was relocated to the GTR was not done according to when reservations were, but was done by who felt they were more important. Comments were heard from numerous members that board members had priority at the Park Place, so the members who paid the same fees, basically got crapped on as second class members.
